Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Being wealthy, or being concerned about wealth, adds difficulty to the task of working out our salvation. Jesus promises a hundredfold reward even in this life to all who leave everything and follow him. All Christians are called to practise detachment.

Covid 19 Lifting of Restrictions

As all restrictions are expected to be lifted on Friday 22nd October, we expect to be able to return our churches to pre-covid arrangements on Saturday 23rd/Sunday 24th October P.G. All who feel comfortable about returning are welcome. No limitations on numbers attending any celebration in the church. Personal responsibility is advised.

Holy water fonts to be re-opened. Return of singing in choirs and congregations. Return of altar servers. We look forward to strong congregations attending Mass again, thanking God for His blessings to us and asking Him to protect and guide us week after week.

The rota for Eucharistic Ministers and Readers needs to be revised as some members, having given years of service, for various reasons have decided to move on and give an opportunity to others to become involved in the Eucharistic life of Mallow Parish. We thank those parishioners for their dedication and commitment over the years. If anybody else would like to be relieved of their duties please contact the Parish Office or any of the priests.

Anybody who would like to take on the position of Eucharistic Minister or Reader is encouraged to contact the Parish Office or any of the priests. Some training will take place in November.

Autumn Stations

We wish to thank you most sincerely for your generosity in the Autumn Station Masses held recently.
