Two of the old banners from St. Mary's sacristy have been professionally restored with the help of a grant from the Heritage Council and a generous donor. They are now on permanent display in St. Mary's Church in specially made, locked cabinets. One reads Ave Maria, Hail Mary and the other reads "Queen of heaven we ask your help" using an old Gaelic script and spelling which probably dates them to 1900 - 1920 period.
