Jesus joined the despondent disciples and listened to them. 'We had hoped...'...When you have been upset or disappointed, who has joined you along the road? To whom have you been able to pour out your heart? Who was a 'Jesus person' to you, listening to you in respectful silence? To whom have you been a Jesus person?

Jesus then helps them to see things in another light by opening the scriptures to them. When did you have the experience of finding your heart 'burning within you' with new hope for the future? Who/what helped you to change after a setback?

The disciples invite Jesus to join them at table—there follows a recognition of who he is. We meet many people on the road of life. Usually we meet and pass on. Occasionally we meet someone whom we invite into our homes, into our hearts, in a deeper way. In what way have you experienced the presence of God or of Jesus?

After Jesus had gone the disciples went to bring the good news to others. When have you met others who told you what happened to them along the road? What effect did this sharing have on you? When have you done this with others? When was such a conversation 'good news' for you or others?

From Intercom April 2023.

Gospels during the Easter Season The Gospel for the Second Sunday of Easter each year (last Sunday) is always the so-called Doubting Thomas section of John 20 because Jesus' second apparition is during the second Sunday. The Gospels on the third Sunday of Easter in the three-year cycle of our Sunday readings relate three different appearances of the risen Jesus: on the road to Emmaus in Year A (this year); to the eleven in Year B and to the disciples on the shore of the Sea of Galilee in Year C. The Fourth Sunday of Easter is always dedicated to Jesus as the Good Shepherd. The Gospels for the fifth and sixth Sundays of Easter are excerpts of Jesus' discourse during the Last Supper in John's Gospel. In this country, Jesus' Ascension is celebrated on the seventh Sunday of Easter but elsewhere (where Jesus' Ascension is celebrated on Ascension Thursday) excerpts of Jesus' discourse during the Last Supper in John continue on the Seventh Sunday.
