November - Month of the Holy Souls

November is a special time to remember to pray for our dead. Each Priest in the Parish celebrates twelve Masses for the Holy Souls annually. Envelopes with forms are available for you, to include the names of your departed loved ones are available at the back of both churches. We invite you to take an envelope. Please return completed list and offering to the collection box at Mass. Alternatively hand in to the Parish Office or to any one of the Priest's houses. The lists of all deceased will be placed in front of the altar and they will be remembered at all Masses during November.

Masses for those who died during the year will take place in St Mary's Church on Thursday, 5th and Friday, 6th of November at 7.30pm. Special invitations to one of these Masses are sent to the families who have been bereaved in the last year. All who wish to pray for the faithful departed are welcome to attend.

Mourneabbey Parish: Autumn Station Masses- A Station Mass for all local areas will be held at Burnfort Church at 7.30pm on Thurs., 29th October. (Thursday Morning Mass is cancelled that day). The Autumn Station Mass at Analeentha Church will be at the 9.30am Mass on Friday 30th October.

A WORD OF THANKS FROM FR. DAMIEN LYNCH -

I wish to thank Mallow Parish Pastoral Council, the parish clergy and everybody who organised, contributed to and attended the Mass and get-together to mark my departure from Mallow and Mourneabbey Parishes on Wednesday, 21st October. It was wonderful to meet again and see familiar faces, and I'm deeply grateful for all the kind words that were spoken and the presentations made. May God bless you all and let us keep one another in our prayers. Fr. Damien Lynch.

NOVEMBER INDULGENCES FOR THE HOLY SOULS

Praying for the Faithful Departed who are in Purgatory is a traditional feature of the Church's life. The month of November is the month when this is emphasised most of all. In the first week of November plenary (full) indulgences may be gained for the Holy Souls. Indulgences are the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven. The faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains the indulgence under prescribed conditions for either himself or the departed. Indulgences are granted through the ministry of the Church which, as the dispenser of the grace of redemption, distributes the treasury of the merits of Christ and the Saints. Indulgences for the Holy Souls may be gained in one of the following ways:

1. From 12 o'clock noon on 1 November until midnight on 2 November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary) can gain one plenary (full) indulgence for the dead by visiting a church, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostle's Creed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1 November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1 November to 8 November. 2. The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls once per day every day of November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.
